

we've made it easy since 1967^{am}

(262) 544-5500

sales@SwimmingPoolServices.com

Is it ever going to stop sagging?

Whenever there is precipitation, there will be a chance of your safety pool cover sagging due to the lower water level and weight of pooling water. This is normal for the first few rains and snowfalls, until the pool water level fills back up to normal operating level.

When installing your safety cover, do not be tempted to over tighten the straps. Anchors pulling out and concrete damage can be the result of over tightening.

www.Swimmingpoolservices.com